

I support rules that serve public, rather than private interests. Please do all you can to ensure that media consolidation does not take place. We must have diverse sources for our news, and monopolies do not serve that interest. To ensure an informed republic, we must be able to receive news from a variety of sources.

Do all you can to prevent ownership of our media by a few, insist that the rules stay the same to ensure true freedom of the press.